

Landmarks of West Adams

Saturday, June 7, 2008

10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

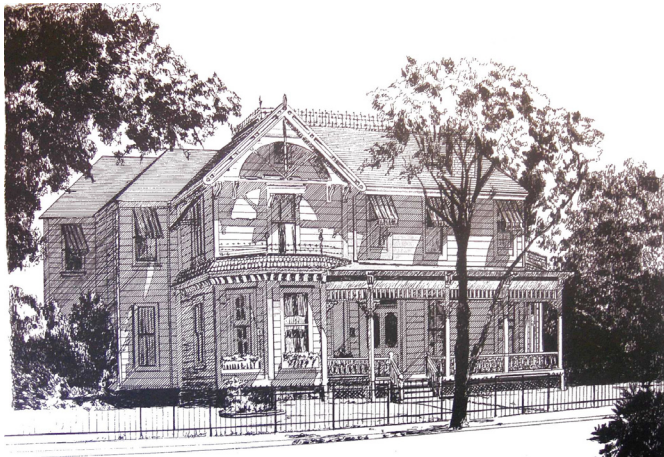

It's our 25th year of historic preservation! To celebrate, WAHA opens the doors to some of West Adams' best landmarks. Tour the interiors of:

- "The Pink Lady," an elegant 1885 Victorian
- A 1904 Mission Revival firehouse designed by City Hall architect John Parkinson
- A classic 1905 Craftsman designed by John C. Austin
- McCarty Memorial Church, a stunning 1931 Gothic-inspired house of worship listed on the National Register
- A 1912 Arthur Heineman-designed Arts & Crafts residence recently seen on HGTV
- A rare Train & Williams-designed Arts & Crafts mansion, a local and federal landmark
- One of the city's most extraordinary estates, Villa Maria, a 42-room Tudor Revival manor built in 1908.

Check-in/Will Call tickets at Villa Maria (St. John of God), 2468 S. St. Andrews Pl., between 24th St. and Adams Blvd.

This is a self-guided, driving tour. Tour visitors will receive tickets, brochure & map at Check-in/Will Call. We will e-mail confirmations to tour guests who register and pay in advance, and who provide us with e-mail contact information. The last ticket will be sold at 2 p.m., and tour properties will close promptly at 4 p.m. Tour at your own pace, but please do set aside several hours to enjoy the Landmarks of West Adams.

Mail this filled-out form and a check (made payable to WAHA) to:
